

EUNIS EFTL Conference, April 28th-29th, 2014 Barcelona

Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

Casa Convalescència

Provisional Program

The meeting will take place on 28th and 29th April hosted by the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona. The venue is the University's impressive Casa Convalescència which is centrally located and easily accessed from the airport <http://www.uab-casaconvalescencia.org/en/picture-gallery.php>. Dinner (optional) will be at the wonderful La Lluna restaurant (<http://lallunarestaurant.com>).

The programme is still in outline form but will cover the topics of MOOCs and Assessment and Feedback. We will be looking at the emergence of MOOCs in Europe (including a Franco-German collaboration) and the notion of MOOCs for credit.

This ties in with a review of developments in using technology to support assessment and feedback practice especially through the use of peer review.

We may also include sessions on social learning/learning analytics if this will be of interest to members.

The provisional programme is:
